

Press Release

Calsonic Kansei announced “the expansion of its industrial complex”

(From Calsonic Kansei Mexicana's press release announced on November 1st,2013)

Aguascalientes, Aguascalientes (November 1st, 2013.) - The Japanese auto -parts manufacturer, Calsonic Kansei announced today the expansion of its industrial complex and the relocation of its new Headquarters in the municipality of San Francisco de los Romo, in the Mexican State of Aguascalientes.

The President and CEO of Calsonic Kansei Hiroshi Moriya, during the opening event of the Plant, said that Mexico is a great country to work in , and that it is an honor to have talented Mexican employees working in a company that is recognized for having top technology worldwide.

The company opened its doors to employees and important personalities, such as the Secretary of Economy, Mr. Idefonso Guajardo Villarreal, the Governor of the State of Aguascalientes Mr. Carlos Lozano de la Torre.

During the grand opening, the President and COO of CalsonicKansei Mexicana, Bharat Vennapusa, acknowledged the importance of the governmental support provided in order to develop and build up this industrial complex, which stands over 33,000 square meters and will employ more than 500 employees directly and 1,000 indirectly, creating a total of 1,500 jobs for the state of Aguascalientes. The President and COO of CalsonicKansei Mexicana said that being part of such modern and advance technological innovation worldwide such as the latest generation equipment Aguascalientes plant holds, inspires all the Directors and executives in the Company.

For inquiry, please contact:

Calsonic Kansei Corporation, Corporate Planning Office, Public Relation Team

+81-(0)48-660-2161